ALBUMS

- “Aman” (that means Peace in English (Audio)). Urdu/Hindi poems of Stephen Gill Against War And Bloodshed. Singer: Khalid Salim from Jazeera.
Language : Urdu/Hindi
In one section of this album, Stephen Gill experiments with the Japanese form of poetry, called haiku. He has created this section on the rhythm of Panjabi folk songs called maya or tappey. Gill’s haiku-like presentation is on a serious subject, such as peace. Every line is an integral part of the whole. Moreover, these presentations are in Urdu/Hindi. The result is a meaningful soul-touching creation that is deeply soothing.
- “Aman Ki Rah” (Road to peace). Urdu/Hindi poems of Stephen Gill from Jazeera. Nazir Shad, a prominent singer from Pakistan composes and sings seven poem in Aman Ki Rah. The albums was released by Dr. Kuldip Singh Kular, a member of the parliament of Ontario, on November 21, 2005 for Canada International Panjabi Sahit Academy (CIPSA).
